

Dr. JOSÉ ANTÔNIO PUPPIM
DE OLIVEIRA

Dr. Jose Antonio Puppim de Oliveira, scientist in the field of tourism is currently working as Associate Professor at the Brazilian School of Public and Business Administration, Getulio Vargas Foundation, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

Dr. Jose Antonio Puppim de Oliveira completed his Degree in Engineering from the Aeronautics Technological Institute (ITA), Brazil in 1989. He completed his Master's degree in Regional Planning, from Hokkaido University, Sapporo, Japan, with a scholarship granted by the Japanese Ministry of Education (MONBUSHO) in 1995. In 2000, he completed his Ph.D. in Planning from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, with the Voorhees scholarship granted by DUSP/MIT.

Dr. Puppim de Oliveira specializes in political economy of sustainable development both in public and business administration. He is interested in teaching and research in political economy of development, tourism, project analysis, sustainable development and business and social responsibility. Dr. Puppim de Oliveira has written several texts published in peer-reviewed journals, books, conference annals and magazines in Brazil and abroad. He has worked for several organizations in the public and private sector in research and consulting. He was also selected for various scholarships and has many awards and honors to his credit.

Dr. Jose Antonio Puppim de Oliveira is married and lives in Copacabana, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. He is fluent in Portuguese, English, Spanish and Japanese languages.

Dr. Jose Antonio Puppim de Oliveira was selected by the World Scientists Forum for "Eminent Scientist of the Year 2003" international award of IRPC in the field of tourism based on his contributions in tourism research and development.